Carol: (MOB)

Justin is more than amazing. He made my daughter feel that no other bride was more beautiful and no other wedding more wonderful. His attention to detail was flawless focusing on a treasured grandmother's wedding ring and capturing tender, sentimental expressions that might have been overlooked. A glimpse of a shot of the bride shared quickly by Justin in the camera as my husband and I waited for the wedding to begin truly was breathtaking. That photo evokes the same response from all who've seen it. As the mother of the bride, I wanted to be everywhere and see everything. I couldn't, but Justin did, and the results were spectacular.

Ashley:

My husband and I could not be happier with our engagement and wedding photos from 375 Photography. Bottom line: We had the BEST experience ever working with 375 Photography and HIGHLY recommend them for up and coming weddings. For starters, 375 has an incredibly quick turnaround time for picture return (about a week for engagement, 1-2 weeks for wedding). You get all the photos on a DVD with rights (which is wonderful). 375 has an incredible price, and on our wedding day, Justin had an assistant photographer, who was also awesome. As for the quality of 375 Photography, we cannot say enough wonderful things. 375 is GREAT to work with. Justin W. is enthusiastic, devoted, honest, and was totally excited about our day. Justin and his assistant (also named Justin) really enjoyed being there on our day! In fact, Justin is excited, whether it's engagement shoot or wedding day, and his excitement just makes you as a bride (or groom) feel even more comfortable and excited. Justin is willing to make the drive as well…our engagement shoot and wedding were quite a hike from where he's located, and he drove the distance and was so enthusiastic and excited about our chosen locations. 375 really listens to what you want. You tell them what you desire in your photos, and they spend the time researching, thinking, and really delivering what you want. I asked for more close-ups and shots of facial expressions, and he absolutely captured it. Justin will absolutely go the extra mile to get excellent photos. (Justin even stepped out on logs in a shallow part of a lake during our wedding to get a photo, and it turned out absolutely incredible!) 375 is willing to spend the time with you on your day to capture the shots. Our pictures by 375 are AMAZING. Honestly, there were SO many great pictures from our wedding (out of 1500+ pictures), that it's going to be impossible to pick even a hundred favorites because there are SOOO many awesome shots. We've had so many people remark that our photos look like something straight out of a magazine or blog. In summary, my husband and I absolutely feel that 375 Photography is the bet
